

A. O. Smith Corporation

Audit Committee Charter

The Audit Committee will assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling the Board's oversight responsibilities relating to (i) the integrity of the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, (ii) the Company's process for financial reporting and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the independent registered public accounting firm's (hereinafter "independent auditors") selection, qualifications and independence, (iv) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors, (v) the assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls and (vi) the Company's enterprise risk management policies and procedures. The Committee will ensure that there is free and open communication among the Committee, internal and independent auditors and management of the Company. The Committee will prepare the Report of the Audit Committee to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement. The Committee is empowered to investigate any matter that comes to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company. The Committee may retain independent legal counsel, advisors, or other experts for advice and assistance as the Committee deems appropriate. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee is not providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements or any professional certification as to the work of the Company's independent auditors.

The Committee will be annually appointed by the Board of Directors and will consist of at least three members who meet the independence requirements under the New York Stock Exchange's listing standards and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") rules. All Committee members will be financially literate, and at least one member will be an audit committee financial expert, as defined by Commission rules and as determined by the Board of Directors. Committee members shall not serve simultaneously on the audit committees of more than three public companies.

The Audit Committee will:

1. Review and assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.
2. Appoint the Company's independent auditors, which may be subject to shareholders' ratification. The Committee will approve audit fees, scope and term, and provide oversight of, the independent auditors. The Committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditors and, where appropriate, replace the independent auditors. The independent auditors are accountable to the Committee, as representatives of the Company's shareholders.
3. Pre-approve all auditing services (including statutory audits and comfort letters in connection with securities offerings) as well as non-audit services (including tax services) to be provided by the independent auditors. The Committee shall receive certain disclosure, documentation and discussion of non-prohibited tax services by the independent auditors based on PCAOB Rule 3524. The Committee will determine whether the performance of permitted non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence.

4. Obtain and review an annual report by the independent auditors describing: the firm's internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company.
5. Review and discuss the annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements with management and the independent auditors, including the Company's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations", and make a recommendation to the Board of Directors as to the inclusion of the annual audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K and the quarterly unaudited financial statements and Forms 10-Q.
6. Review and discuss with management of the Company and the independent auditors the quarterly earnings press release and hold general discussion on financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies as well as any matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors.
7. Meet periodically with management to review and discuss the Company's policies and procedures regarding risk assessment and risk management. While it is the responsibility of management to assess and manage the Company's exposure to risk, the Committee, in conjunction with the other committees of the Board, will discuss and review the policies and procedures that govern the process and the steps management has taken to assess, monitor and control such exposures.
8. Meet periodically to review and discuss with management and the independent auditors the Company's accounting policies, that may be viewed as critical, and review and discuss any significant changes. The Committee will also review and discuss with management and the independent auditors significant accounting and reporting developments, including recent professional and regulatory pronouncements, and their impact on the Company's financial statements.
9. Discuss with management the results of Disclosure Committee meetings and management's activities in connection with performing its required quarterly certifications under Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, including the evaluation of the effectiveness of disclosure controls by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer.
10. Meet separately with (i) management, (ii) the internal auditors and (iii) the independent auditors on a periodic basis.
11. Review and discuss with the independent registered auditors (i) any difficulties the auditors encounter in the course of their audit work, including any restrictions on the scope of the independent auditors' procedures or on access to requested information, and management's response, and (ii) any significant disagreements with management. Discuss with the independent auditors the matters required by applicable PCAOB auditing standards and guidelines. Oversee the resolution of any disagreements between the independent registered public accounting firm and management.

12. Discuss with the internal auditors and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits including the adequacy of staffing. Discuss (i) results of audits and review significant reports that are issued and (ii) management's remediation plans for any identified material weaknesses, significant deficiencies and control deficiencies.
13. Discuss with management, the internal auditors, and the independent auditors (i) the adequacy and effectiveness of the internal and financial controls and (ii) the adequacy of staffing. The Committee will review any management letter issued by the independent auditors and recommendations and management's response. The Committee will set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the independent auditors and oversee the process to address rotation of lead audit partner of the independent auditors.
14. Review and discuss with management the programs and practices of the Company designed to promote compliance with applicable laws and regulations and to monitor the results of these compliance efforts. Meet, on a periodic basis, with the Company's General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer to review the implementation and effectiveness of the Company's ethics and compliance program.
15. Establish and annually review procedures for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal controls or auditing matters, and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of information regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters all in accordance with the requirements of Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act as amended and related statutory and/or regulatory requirements.
16. Consult on the appointment, replacement, reassignment or dismissal of the Internal Audit Director, who shall have direct access to the Committee.
17. Perform an annual self-assessment of the Committee's effectiveness.
18. Review and approve the Financial Code of Ethics of the Company.
19. Report regularly to the Board, including as to any issues that arise with respect to the quality or integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, the Company's enterprise risk management policies and procedures, the performance and independence of the independent auditors or the performance of the internal audit function.

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth above, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or risk assessments, and the Committee is not responsible for the preparation, content, integrity or objectivity of the Company's financial statements. These are the responsibility of management and the Company's independent public accountants. It is not the duty of the Committee to assure compliance with laws and regulations or the Company's rules, policies and procedures, or to conduct investigations.
